

Celebrating a Wonderful Success: Friends of the Oceanside Public Library 2nd Annual Craft & Book Sale

The Friends of the Oceanside Public Library are delighted to celebrate the tremendous success of its 2nd Annual Craft, Book Sale, and Silent Auction held on December 6th in the Civic Center Library's community room and courtyard. This festive fundraiser brought together the creativity, generosity, and community spirit that make Oceanside such a special place.

Thanks to the remarkable support of Friends members, volunteers, Library staff, and the many generous local business partners, this year's event raised nearly $3,500. These funds will directly support the much-needed Library programs, services, and resources that enrich the lives of readers and families throughout Oceanside.

Our dedicated volunteers and Events Committee poured countless hours into planning, organizing, crafting, sorting, decorating, and welcoming attendees, and their hard work truly shone. The community room was full of vibrant handmade treasures, crafted with care, offering attendees the chance to purchase timeless, one-of-a-kind gifts that are sure to become cherished keepsakes for years to come.

Of course, no Friends event would be complete without a fantastic book sale! Shoppers browsed an inviting selection of gently used books, from bestsellers and classics to children's favorites, each one finding a new home while helping support the much-loved Library.
